

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION: A GUIDE FOR SHARING THE FATHER'S LOVE

July 15-17, 2019

$194 single occupancy / $326 double / $88 commuter

A retreat for spiritual leaders, spiritual directors and aspiring spiritual directors (priests, religious, monks and laypersons) who are called to the unique and grace-filled ministry of accompanying and guiding souls to God who wants to fill them with His love. In a world filled with souls who are hungry for the Divine, the Church is called to set the world ablaze with the Love of God.

Surrounded by the beauty of the Abbey and immersed in Benedictine monastic tradition, this retreat, hosted at Mount Angel Abbey Guesthouse, is dedicated to spiritual direction ministry. It features two prominent speakers with years of experience: Fr. Thomas Acklin and Fr. Boniface Hicks, Benedictine monks of St. Vincent Archabbey, Pennsylvania. They will guide retreatants, following their highly acclaimed book “Spiritual Direction: A Guide for Sharing the Father’s Love.”

The goals of this retreat are to equip directors to guide others to the Father’s love through the charism of spiritual direction and to understand the spirituality and the various dimensions of this ministry: the sacredness and dignity of each soul, interiority and vulnerability, listening and communication, and other practical aspects. The instructors will be available for questions and some one-on-one ministry throughout the retreat as well.
